

Prepare to look at the world through a different lens

Three and a half days of engaging discussions and interactive presentations delivered by the world class experts of Singularity University.

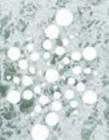

What to expect

The SingularityU Canada Executive Program (EP) is an immersive experience that examines how key converging technologies will shape our future and the leadership challenges and opportunities in a world of rapid change. The SingularityU Canada EP fosters insightful conversations and connections that leverage the diverse cohort of thought leaders and innovators we convene for each session.

Who you will meet

The intensive program is intended for future-oriented senior influencers in business, government, and nonprofit sectors. It is designed for leaders with the desire to have a positive impact at scale, who want the skills and foresight to excel and succeed in a world of accelerating change.

Why you should join

Leading your team and organisation in our rapidly changing environment has never been more challenging or more important. Remaining relevant means you will have to transform everything about your organisation - strategy, culture, structure, and leadership.

This transformation starts with people and requires your organisation to establish a culture that fosters learning, adaptability, and speed.

Shift your thinking at the SingularityU Canada EP and prepare your team for the blurring lines between industries and unexpected impact of seemingly unrelated fields.

How this program will help you succeed

You are a catalyst for an ongoing change. People look to you for new ideas and visions for the future. To be successful, you need to continuously reset your forecast of what's possible and ensure you embrace a new skillset, toolset, and mindset that can inspire your team and empower your organisation to adapt and evolve.

Our curriculum is redesigned everytime we run our program to ensure we expose you to the most recent trends and breakthroughs in exponential technologies, while also bringing forward the frameworks and transformation tools that will help you challenge the status-quo.
